

This book belongs to:

Franklin

Hundreds of Windows

The children drew pictures back at school.

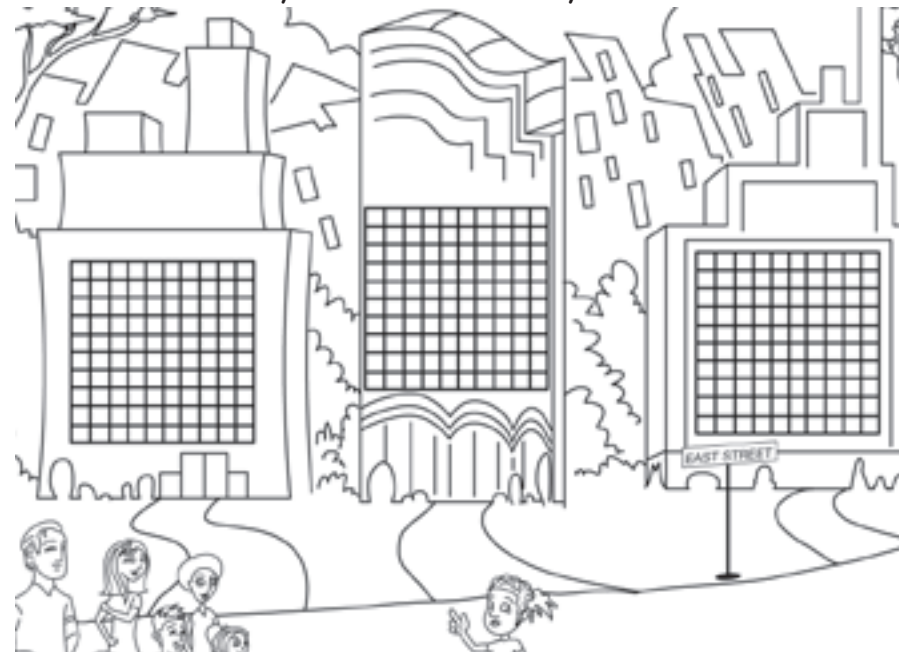

These are the buildings they saw.

Help them count all the windows.

There are 900 windows in all.

Hundreds of Windows

Written by David Ribeiro Illustrated by Peter Lacalamita

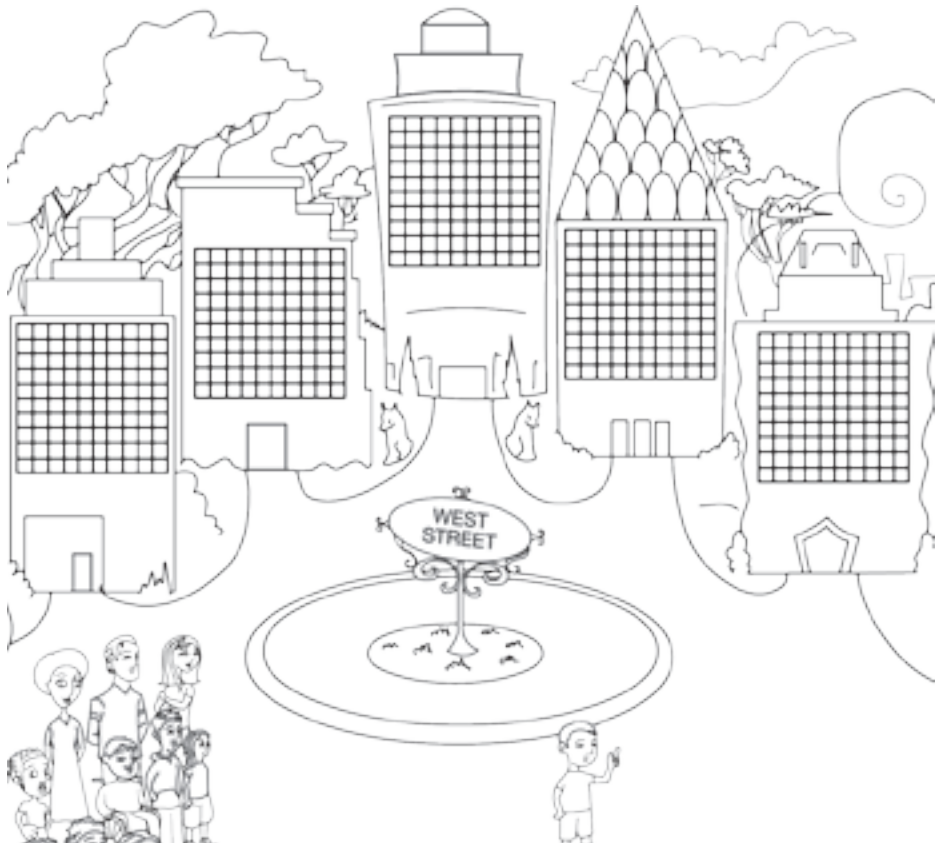

Emma's class is taking a trip to the city.

Emma will count the windows on East Street.

There are three buildings.

Help her count.

There are 300 windows.

Scott will count the windows on West Street.

There are five buildings.

Help him count.

There are 500 windows.

Elena will count the windows on South Street.

Help her count the windows in the brown building.

There are 100 windows.